1. W: What job would make you happy, Peter?

M: I love delicious food and I have a great interest in cooking, so I hope I can be a cook.

2. W: Nick, you look tired. What's the matter?

M: My grandma has been ill in hospital these days. I have to ride for twenty minutes to see her after work every day.

3. W: Hello, Mr Zhang. Here is your plan for next week. Please take a look.

M: OK, let me see. I need to visit a company on Monday. And I should attend an important talk on Tuesday. Then there are another two talks on Wednesday and Friday. What a busy week!

4. W: Hi, Ben! Where's your brother? I want to play chess with him.

M: He's in his room. He's doing his homework now. Maybe you can play chess with me.

5. W: Jack, it's ten to six now! We will be late for dinner. Your Maths practice will end at 6 o'clock, right?

M: Sure, Mum. I started it forty minutes ago.

W: Tom and I talked about future jobs. What do you want to be, Paul?

M: I've always wanted to be a doctor. My grandma was sick last year, and the doctors helped her a lot—I want to help people too.

W: That's nice! And I want to be a teacher. By the way, have you seen Suzy's new painting? It's amazing!

M: Yes! The colours are cool. And she added some interesting details. She's really creative, right?

W: Yes! For last month's group project, she thought of making a 3-D green city model. Our teacher loved her idea!

M: And she's also careful. She never makes mistakes in homework or art.

W: That's true! She is my role model.

M: Let's work hard for our dreams together!

W: Exactly!

Last term, my classmate Elise often looked worried, because she was having difficulty learning English.

The first problem was that she couldn't get the pronunciation right. She was asked to do more listening training and repeat difficult sentences several more times. This kind of training indeed helped improve her pronunciation a lot.

The second problem was that she would forget new words easily. She was told to always write down the new words in her notebook and review them often. It really helped.

The third problem was that when people talked to her in English, she did not know what to say. She was advised to join an English club to practise speaking English. The English club met after school on Mondays and Wednesdays.

The last problem was that she didn't get much writing practice. Then she thought of a fun way to practise writing. That was to find a pen pal. They usually sent e-mails in English.

This term, she looks confident, because she has solved all the problems. I used to give up easily when I met a problem. After learning about Elise's story, I will think of ways to solve the problem whenever it appears.

Max is preparing for the school sports meeting. To get a good result, he keeps practising every day.

He gets up at six in the morning. Then he goes jogging in the park near his home. After having a healthy breakfast at home, he goes to school by bike, instead of taking a bus. Between classes, he practises running on the sports field with his classmates. He feels happy during the practice. He usually has a rest after lunch. This gives him energy for the afternoon. After school, he finishes his homework first. Then he goes to the gym to do some physical exercise. What's more, he often goes to bed before 9 p.m. He thinks enough sleep can prepare him well for the next day.

The sports meeting is one week away. Everyone believes Max will win. By the way, do you know which sport Max is going to take part in? Yes, you are right. It's running.

Would you like to help others in your free time? Then join us to be a volunteer!

You can help people in many ways. Schools need help with taking care of children while parents are working. Hospitals also need volunteers to look after children while their parents are seeing a doctor.

"As a volunteer, I help the children with their homework. Seeing their smiles makes me happy," said Carla, a volunteer aged 62. "I teach old people how to use laptops. I'm so glad that I can help," said another volunteer at the age of 18.

If everyone helps a bit, we'll have a better world to live in. Are you interested? Call us on 800-555-5756, or send an email to volunteer@sunshine.com.

Hello, everyone. I've got some exciting news for you.

As you know, our school has more than 30 exchange students from America, England, Canada and France. In order to help them enjoy their time here, the Students' Union has decided to organize a Western Music Week. It will be held in the last week of September.

You can sing your favourite Western pop song. While singing, you can also play a musical instrument if you bring your own.

There will also be an interesting activity. In each turn, one of the exchange students will sing the first three sentences of a pop song. The Chinese students will then guess and compete to be the first to give the title of the song. The one who guesses right the most times will get an amazing prize.

Please come to the Students' Union office to sign up before 15 September if you want to take part in any of the activities. The Western Music Week will be held in the garden to the left of the library. That's all!

第二部分 听短文，回答问题（听两遍）

Good morning, everyone. Welcome to your first weekend painting class. My name is Kevin, and I will be your teacher for the next 12 weeks.

I know you are from all walks of life, and for most of you, this is your first time painting, or even your first time doing anything artistic. Don't worry. This course is designed to teach you the basics of drawing.

In the first two weeks, you will get familiar with some very basic drawing techniques. In Week 3, I will start giving you weekly homework, so you can improve outside of these classes. It is not a course requirement, but it will really help you progress. After Week 8, you have to finish a final piece of work. This artwork will require some creativity. After the 12th week, which is the last week, we will hold an art fair in a local park, to show or sell your paintings. Both you and your family are welcome to attend.

Lucas takes the puppy home and names her Bella. They become best friends. However, Bella belongs to a special kind of dog. According to the local government, it is not allowed to live in Lucas's place. Lucas decides to send Bella to a friend's home 400 miles away. There, it is allowed to stay. Bella arrives at this new house, but just wants to be with Lucas. So she runs away. After travelling 400 miles, Bella finally sees Lucas again.

I watched this film with my 12-year-old son David, my 10-year-old daughter Melissa, and my sister Michelle on 18 January. The kids seemed to love the film very much. While we were watching the film, I heard them laughing and sometimes they looked worried. In a word, it's a film worth watching.

Today we'll talk about Ernest Hemingway, a famous American writer. Like many great writers, Hemingway based his stories on his personal experiences. In 1923, his first book was published. It is a collection of short stories and poems. As we know, in his early twenties, Hemingway lived in Paris and knew many famous writers and artists there. In 1926, his first novel, The Sun Also Rises, came out. In the book, he wrote about a group of gifted but lonely and angry people.

In 1952, he wrote a short novel, The Old Man and the Sea. It is a simple story about an old fisherman, but Hemingway explores some serious subjects in it, such as the human spirit. This book also helped Hemingway win the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1954.

三、Sample writing:

Dear Mike,

Thank you so much for your email. I hope I can offer you some useful advice.

First, since you can't get high marks, I think you should improve your learning methods, such as listening to the teacher more carefully in class, taking notes carefully, reviewing lessons regularly and correcting mistakes in time.

Second, since you feel tired and stressed, why not make a careful plan? Studying is not the only task. You need time to relax, so learn to keep a balance between study and hobbies.

Finally, try to communicate with your parents often. Share your feelings and worries with them. Let them know that your health is as important as your marks.

I hope you think my advice is useful.

Best wishes,
Mr Kind

Difficulty leads to success

I used to have trouble with English writing. I couldn't organize ideas clearly and often made grammar mistakes. My scores were always low and it made me worried. I asked my teacher for help. She advised me to read short English passages every day and copy good sentences. I also practised writing a short paragraph daily. Whenever I met problems, I turned to my teacher or classmates.

After three months, my writing improved a lot. I did better in exams. This experience shows that hard work and the spirit of never giving up are always key to success.

A letter to my future self

Dear "Future Me",

I'm writing to send a gentle hello across the years. How are you? Right now, I'm falling behind in some of my classes. Homework makes me feel a little bit stressed.
Subjects like Physics and Maths are really challenging. Sometimes I stay in low spirits for quite a few days.

However, I find encouragement from Stephen Hawking, who made great achievements and faced his difficulties bravely. He stayed positive in his life. His story of overcoming great difficulties teaches me that I should not give up.

Therefore, I've decided to face this challenge. I will make a plan to help me improve. I'm going to study a little bit every day, practise more and carry on. I believe every small step counts.

I hope you are living your dream. Keep going!

Yours,

Li Hua

There are many inspiring tales about talented painters.

One well-known figure was Vincent van Gogh, the post-impressionist painter who created vibrant artworks even when he faced great hardship. He often used simple materials that he could easily find, like cheap canvas and basic oil paints.

Another remarkable artist was Frida Kahlo. She painted self-portraits that showed her physical pain and emotional depth, using bright colours that made her pieces stand out. Even when she was bedridden, she found ways to create art that touched people's hearts.

Dear James,

I'm glad to tell you about my favourite painter, Vincent van Gogh.

Van Gogh was a Dutch painter who lived in the 19th century. Though he didn't receive much attention during his lifetime, his works are now considered treasures of art. I love him mainly for his unique painting style: his brushwork is bold and full of energy, and he used bright, vivid colours to express strong feelings.

What touches me most is his spirit—he kept creating even when he faced loneliness and difficulties. His works do not just look beautiful but pass on a message of passion for life. Now, whenever I feel down, looking at his paintings reminds me to hold on to my love for what I do.

I hope we can have more chances to talk about his works someday. Who is your favourite artist? Write back soon!

Yours,
Li Hua

My favourite film

My favourite film is Forrest Gump. It's more than just a film; it's a beautiful poem about how to be a better person.

The hero, Forrest Gump, is a man with a simple mind but a heart of gold. He experiences many important events but always stays true to himself and treats everyone kindly.

Forrest makes me believe in friendship. Then, his spirit of never giving up gives me courage. Also, I'm always touched by the wise line, "Life is like a box of chocolates. You never know what you're gonna get."

From this film, I have learnt that life is full of surprises, and we should face them with a positive attitude.

My favourite film

Zootopia is one of my favourite films. It is a cartoon film. It is about a rabbit who joins the police force and solves a difficult case with a fox. The story is well told and all the characters are very interesting. What's more, some scenes in the film are so beautiful!

Also, I think a good film can teach us about life, or explain what the meaning of life is, what real friendship is and so on. This film is a perfect example. It teaches me to stick to my dream and then work hard to achieve it.
